"Carmen" is the hit of the season at the Metropolitan Opera House. In fact, the revival of Bizet's opera is the greatest success that Mr. Gatti-Casazza has achieved during his Con-Casazza has achieved during his Consuiship. More than a thousand persons were turned away from the matinee performance on Saturday. The waiting lines extended around the building into Seventh Avenue, and, finally, the police had to be called to clear the outer lobby. The fortunate ones saw and heard a remarkable exposition of the opera. It was not only that Geraldine Farrar and Caruso in the leading parts were keyed up to a high tension, but that the whole cast, including chorus and ballet under the magician-like wand of Mr. der the magician-like wand of Mr.
Toscanini, was more or less inspired.
Amato again was Escamillo, and a special word of praise is due to Lucrezia Borl for her charming impersonation of Micaela.

GATHER FOR "VOTES" FIGHT.

Women Suffragists Get Ready to Storm Congress. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.-The fight in behalf of the adoption by Congress of a constitutional amendment to extend suffrage to women took an additional interest with the arrival here to-day of many prominent woman suffragists. They plan to be on hand during the debate in the House on the proposed amendment and to attend the annual meeting of the Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage on Jan. 10.

Chairman Henry of the House Rules Committee plans to report a rule to provide for discussion on a resolution for submission of the proposed constitutional amendment to the State Legislatures within a few days. Vigorous efforts have been made by suffrage advocates and its opponents to bring about a vote on the rule and resolution. The suffrage fight in the House is expected to rival in interest the context over the prohibition constitutional amendment. of many prominent woman suffragists.

The Wrinkles in Father's Forehead

Mothers, wives and sweethearts, I wish to call your attention to something that may have escaped your observation, to wit: the wrinkles in father's forehead. This has been a hard year. Times have not been what they should be. Still, father struggled during the past month to provide presents, keepsakes and toys for the various members of the family, and if you stop to consider, his share of the presents was limited; in fact, poor father was forgotten. He is the dray horse who has been sent to bed without supper, and I want to let you know it is still not too late. Make him a present of a fine black Kersey overcoat which I will make to his order for $7.75.

Last week I prophesied that you would hear the screeches this week, and I hereby challenge any ready-made house in the country to produce for twice what I will charge, for a fine black, guaranteed all wool, Kersey Overcoating, 24 to 28 oz. in weight, made up with velvet collar, any style, single or double breasted, to your measure for $7.75; cut by the highest priced designer of custom made clothing in the country, and delivered from twenty-four to thirty-six hours after the order is given.
